

Programme NVAS Africaday “Everyday Africa” 23 November 2013, Rijksmuseum Volkenkunde Leiden

Time/Place	Entrance	Restaurant*	Event hall on the first floor	Mecca exposition	Africa gallery 1	Africa gallery 2	Africa gallery 3
10.00-10.30	Registration	Posters
10.30-10.35		Djembe call	Welkomstwoord door Annette Schmidt
10.35-10.40			Welcome by Felix Ameka
10.40-11.20			Water and Africa's development agenda by Pieter van der Zaag, UNESCO-IHE Delft
11.20-11.35			Flash presentations of the posters
11.35-11.55		Posters Coffee, tea
11.55-13.00		Djembe call	Presidential address and ALV by Felix Ameka including book presentation Africa for sale by Guus van Westen. The book will be presented to Stijn Schoonderwoerd
13.00-13.30		Lunch
13.30-14.00		Djembe call	Het avontuur van de secretarisvogel, door haarzelf verteld door Tom Draisma	Sajoh Bah about the African route to Mecca	Rogier Bedaux vertelt bij de Mali collectie.	Annette Schmidt vertelt bij de Benin collectie.	Marijke Steegstra about the Ghanaian collection.
14.00-14.30		Djembe call	Waarom Mukuka Nkoloso een staatsbegrafenis kreeg door Tom Draisma	Sajoh Bah about the African route to Mecca	Rogier Bedaux vertelt bij de Mali collectie.	Annette Schmidt vertelt bij de Benin collectie.	Harrie Leyten vertelt bij de Congo collectie.
14.30-15.10		Djembe call	Everyday mobile communication in Africa by Mirjam de Bruijn, ASC/Leiden University
15.10-15.25		Posters Coffee, tea
15.25-16.10		Djembe call	ASC Africa thesis award: Cyclone resilient landscape, the case of Vatomandry, Madagascar by Esther Bergstra and Roxanne Hornman
16.10-17.00		Posters Drinks

*Food and drink should only be consumed in the restaurant, please observe this rule strictly to protect the unique collection of this museum.

Languages of the day: English and Dutch.

You need a ticket to join one of the tours. Each tour has a maximum of 20 participants. The (free) tickets can be obtained at the registration desk.